INITIATIVES AND REFERENDUM VOTED ON AT THE GENERAL ELECTION HELD ON NOVEMBER 3, 1998

Colorado General Assembly, Legislative Council

Amendment 11
Partial-Birth Abortion
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning a prohibition against partial-birth abortions, and, in connection therewith, specifying that no one shall knowingly or intentionally perform a partial-birth abortion; allowing a medical procedure to prevent the death of the pregnant woman, if every reasonable effort is made to preserve the lives of the woman and the infant; defining partial-birth abortion as an abortion during which the person performing the abortion deliberately and intentionally causes to be delivered into the vagina a living human fetus or any substantive portion thereof for the purpose of performing any procedure the person knows will kill the fetus and kills the fetus before completing delivery; specifying that "fetus" and "infant" mean the biological offspring of human parents and may be used interchangeably throughout the measure; establishing specified civil remedies for certain persons; establishing criminal penalties for violations after February 14, 1999; and stating that the amendment cannot be amended except by a vote of the people.

Amendment 12
Parental Notification for Abortion
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning parental notification when an unemancipated minor seeks an abortion, and, in connection therewith, specifying that no abortion shall be performed upon an unemancipated minor until at least 48 hours after written notice of the pending abortion has been delivered to the parent of the minor; identifying exceptions to the notice requirement; defining abortion as the use of any means to terminate the pregnancy of a minor with knowledge that the termination by those means will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of that person's unborn offspring at any time after fertilization; establishing criminal penalties for performing an abortion in violation of the requirement to provide notice to the parent and for counseling a minor to furnish a physician with false information to induce the physician to perform an abortion without providing the notice; and establishing a judicial bypass provision, which shall be effective under certain circumstances, pursuant to which a court may determine that giving the notice will not be in the best interests of the minor or that the minor is sufficiently mature to decide whether to have the abortion.

Amendment 13
Uniform Regulation of Livestock Operations
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Constitution requiring the uniform application of laws to livestock operations, and, in connection therewith, mandating that laws and regulations concerning livestock operations be uniform and based upon the similarity in the potential impact on the environment of the livestock operation; making unconstitutional any state law or regulation that does not treat livestock operations uniformly based upon the similarity in the potential impact on the environment of the livestock operation; allowing the general assembly to make a distinction between livestock feeding on the range and livestock feeding in a concentrated animal feeding operation; permitting the general assembly to make a distinction between concentrated animal feeding operations that are smaller than one thousand animal units and those that are larger than one thousand animal units; specifying that one animal unit be considered to be a cow and all other livestock to be fractions of a cow as determined by the general assembly; and defining livestock as cattle, sheep, goats, swine, mules, poultry, horses, and all other animals raised or kept for profit.

Amendment 14
Regulation of Commercial Hog Facilities
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning regulation of housed commercial swine feeding operations which can house 800,000 or more pounds of swine or which are deemed commercial under local law, and, in connection therewith, conditioning operation, construction, or expansion of a housed commercial swine feeding operation on receipt of an individual discharge permit from the department of public health and environment; directing the water quality control commission to adopt rules regarding the construction, operation, and management of and waste disposal by such operations; providing that such rules shall require that land application of waste from such operations shall not exceed the nutritional requirements of the plants on that land and shall minimize runoff and seepage of such waste; providing that such rules shall require that such operations not be permitted to degrade the physical attributes or value of state trust lands, make immediate reports of spills or contamination to state and county health departments, and monitor land-applied waste from such operations and report thereon to the state health department; authorizing fees on such operations to offset direct and indirect costs of the program; authorizing local governments to impose more restrictive requirements; requiring that such operations employ technology to minimize odor emissions; requiring operations to cover waste impoundments that do not use air or oxygen in their waste treatment method, and to recover, incinerate, or manage odorous gases therefrom; establishing minimum distances between new land waste application sites or impoundments and occupied dwellings, schools, and municipal boundaries; and providing for enforcement of these provisions by the state or any person who may be adversely affected.

Amendment 15
Water Meters in the San Luis Valley
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning a requirement for the installation of water flow meters on any nonexempt well in the unconfined aquifer in Water Division 3 (which is located in whole or in part in Conejos, Alamosa, Rio Grande, Mineral, Saguache, and Costilla counties) on or before April 1, 1999, and, in connection therewith, requiring that the water flow meters be certified by the state engineer; requiring the state engineer to read the water flow meters monthly at the well owner's expense; and directing the state engineer to prevent the operation of any well that does not have a functioning water flow meter.

Amendment 16
Payments for Water by the
Rio Grande Water Conservation District
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Constitution requiring the Rio Grande Water Conservation District, which is located in whole or in part in Conejos, Alamosa, Rio Grande, Mineral, and Saguache counties, to pay fees for all water that has been, is being, or will in the future be pumped from aquifers underlying state trust lands pursuant to Water Decree W-3038 in Water Division 3 (including all or part of Conejos, Alamosa, Rio Grande, Mineral, Saguache, and Costilla counties) for purposes of the "Closed Basin Project", and, in connection therewith, setting such fees at thirty dollars per acre-foot, payable to the state's public school fund, and ten dollars per acre-foot, payable to the school districts in Water Division 3, based upon the State Department of Education's student count for such districts; directing the State Auditor to determine the amounts of such fees payable each year and requiring payment of such amounts within thirty days after such determination, subject to interest at eighteen percent on late payments; requiring the Rio Grande Water Conservation District to assess those irrigators with water rights in the Rio Grande River, in proportion to their water right, an amount equal to the amount of water used and attributable to the water pumped from beneath such state trust lands; and providing that monies paid to the school districts in Water Division 3 shall be in addition to monies made available for public school children and shall not be considered by the general assembly when determining such amount.

Amendment 17
Income Tax Credit for Education
Title

An amendment to the constitution of the state of Colorado concerning the establishment of an income tax credit for parents or legal guardians of children enrolled in public, non-public schools and non-public home-based educational programs, and, in connection therewith, requiring the general assembly to establish an income tax credit for income tax years beginning in 1999; specifying the methods for determining the amount of such credit; establishing priorities for eligibility for such credit; establishing an educational opportunity fund to be used to offset the entire costs of such credit; prohibiting reductions in current per-student public school expenditures as a result of the measure or as a result of the transfer of students to non-public schools; prohibiting the state or any political subdivision thereof from using this section to increase their regulatory role over the education of children in non-public schools beyond that exercised and existent on January 1, 1998; and eliminating eligibility for the income tax credit of parents or legal guardians who send children to certain non-public schools, including those that illegally discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color or national origin or teach hatred.

Amendment 18
Voluntary Congressional Term Limits
Title

An amendment to the Colorado Constitution concerning term limits declarations that may be voluntarily submitted by candidates for the U.S. Congress, and, in connection therewith, specifying when such declarations must be submitted to the secretary of state; providing that a candidate shall not be refused placement on the ballot if the candidate does not submit a declaration; providing that candidates may voluntarily declare that the candidate will not serve more than three terms as a U.S. Representative or more than two terms as a U.S. Senator or may voluntarily declare that the candidate has chosen not to accept term limits; allowing candidates who have made such a declaration to voluntarily authorize placement of an applicable ballot designation next to the candidate's name on congressional election ballots and government-sponsored voter education material; specifying how terms are calculated; allowing candidates to change a declaration; requiring that ballots and voter education material contain the applicable ballot designation following the name of a candidate; specifying that service in office for more than one-half of a term is deemed service for a full term; prohibiting a candidate from having more than one declaration and ballot designation in effect at the same time; specifying that a candidate may authorize the applicable ballot designation only if the candidate has made the voluntary declaration; and authorizing the secretary of state to provide declarations and implement this amendment by rule.

Título y Texto De La Propuesta - Enmienda 11 - Aborto de parto interrumpido

Una enmienda a los Estatutos Revisados del Estado de Colorado con respecto a una prohibición del aborto de parto interrumpido y, en relación con la misma, para especificar que nadie podrá a sabiendas o intencionalmente realizar un aborto de parto interrumpido; para permitir un procedimiento a fin de impedir la muerte de una mujer embarazada, siempre que se tomen todas las medidas razonables para salvar las vidas de la mujer y el bebé; para definir el aborto de parto interrumpido como un aborto durante el cual la persona que realiza el aborto ocasiona, a propósito e intencionalmente, el paso de un feto vivo o una porción sustancial del mismo en la vagina con el propósito de realizar cualquier procedimiento que dicha persona sabe que matará al feto, y que efectivamente mata al feto antes de completar el parto; para especificar que los terminos "feto" y "bebé" significa el hijo/a biológico de padres humanos y podrán usarse de modo intercambiable en toda la medida; para establecer remedios civiles específicos para ciertas personas; para establecer sanciones penales para violaciones después del 14 de febrero de 1999; y para establecer que la enmienda no podrá ser modificada excepto mediante el voto del pueblo.

Título y Texto De La Propuesta - Enmienda 12 - Notificación a los padres para el aborto

Una enmienda de los Estatutos Revisados del Estado de Colorado en relación con la notificación de los padres cuando una menor no emancipada procura un aborto y, en relación con la misma, para especificar que no se realizará ningún aborto a una menor no emancipada hasta que haya transcurrido un periodo de por lo menos 48 horas después de la notificación por escrito del aborto pendiente al padre o a la madre de dicha menor; para identificar excepciones al requisito de notificación; para definir el aborto como el uso de cualquier medio para terminar el embarazo de una menor, con el conocimiento de que la terminación por dichos medios, con probabilidad razonable, ocasionará la muerte del hijo/a sin nacer en cualquier momento después de la fecundación; para establecer sanciones penales por la realización de un aborto en violación del requisito de dar notificación al padre o a la madre y por aconsejar a una menor a suministrar información falsa a un facultativo con el fin de inducir a dicho facultativo a realizar un aborto sin dar la debida notificación; para establecer una estipulación de circunvención judicial que tendrá vigor bajo ciertas circunstancias, conforme a la cual un tribunal podrá determinar que la tramitación de la notificación no será en los mejores intereses de la menor o que la menor tiene la madurez suficiente para decidir si desea o no someterse al aborto.

Título y Texto De La Propuesta - Enmienda 13 - Regulación de las operaciones comerciales de ganado

Una enmienda a la constitución del estado de Colorado para exigir la aplicación uniforme de leyes a las operaciones de ganado y, en relación con la misma, disponer que las leyes y regulaciones relacionadas con las operaciones de ganado sean uniformes y basadas en la similitud del potencial impacto en el medio ambiente de la operación de ganado; declarar anticonstitucional cualquier ley o regulación estatal que no trate las operaciones de ganado de modo uniforme, en base a la similitud en su potencial impacto en el medio ambiente de la operación de ganado; permitir que la asamblea general distinga entre las operaciones de alimentación concentrada de animales inferiores a mil unidades animales y las que sean superiores a mil unidades animales; especificar que una unidad animal se considera una res, y que todo el ganado restante se considera una fracción de una res según determine la asamblea general; y definir el ganado como el ganado vacuno, ganado ovino, ganado cabrío, ganado porcino, los burros, las aves de corral, el ganado caballar y todos los demás animales criados o mantenidos con fines de lucro.

Título y Texto De La Propuesta - Enmienda 14 - Regulación de las operaciones comerciales de ganado porcino

Una enmienda a los Estatutos Revisados del Estado de Colorado en relación a la regulación de las operaciones comerciales de alimentación del ganado porcino, que pueden albergar 800,000 ó más libras de cerdos o lo que se haya determinado como una operación comercial bajo la legislación local, y, en relación con la misma, para condicionar la operación, construcción o ampliación de una operación de alimentación de ganado porcino albergado en la obtención previa de un permiso individual de descarga del departamento de salud pública y del medio ambiente; para ordenar a la comisión de control de calidad del agua que adopte reglas con respecto a la construcción, operación y administración del desecho de residuos de dichas operaciones; para estipular que dichas reglas requieran que la aplicación terrestre de residuos de dichas operaciones no excederá los requisitos nutritivos de las plantas que crecen en esos terrenos y que minimizará la escorrentía y filtración de dichos residuos; para estipular que esas reglas establezcan que dichas operaciones no deberán mermar los atributos físicos o el valor de las tierras fiduciarias estatales, que se reporten inmediatamente a los departamentos de salud estatal y del condado acerca de derrames o contaminación y que se monitoree la aplicación terrestre de residuos de dichas operaciones y se le informe al departamento de salud pública estatal; para autorizar las cuotas sobre dichas operaciones para compensar los costos directos e indirectos del programa; para autorizar a los gobiernos locales a imponer requerimientos más restrictivos; para exigir que dichas operaciones empleen tecnología que reduzca al mínimo las emisiones de olores; para exigir que los operadores cubran los depósitos de residuos en cuyo método de tratamiento no se use aire u oxígeno, y que recuperen, incineren o administren los gases olorosos emanados de los mismos; para establecer distancias mínimas entre nuevos sitios de aplicación terrestre o depósitos de residuos y las residencias ocupadas, escuelas y lindes municipales; y para estipular la ejecución de estas disposiciones por el estado o por cualquier persona que pudiese verse adversamente afectada.
